

Dear Residents, Relatives and Friends

Hello and welcome to the August 2022 edition of the Society of Saint Hilarion newsletter. It has been four months since my coming on in the role of CEO and I have been blessed to have met residents, relatives, and friends at both Fulham and Seaton. What a wonderful group of people we have in our care and what a wonderful group of people we have caring for them. I am in awe of the team of staff so committed to this wonderful organisation. We hope to give you an insight every month of how good life can be at the Society of Saint Hilarion Aged Care and we hope you enjoy reading about it. Wishing you and your family good health, peace, and happiness.

Wellbeing Team

In July a group of 14 residents from The Villa joined with 2 residents from Seaton and 2 "Tempo Mio" clients at The Abruzzo Club for lunch. A great time was had by all with the following feedback summing it up: "I had a wonderful time last Wednesday when we went to The Abruzzo Club for lunch. The food was delicious, the people were so friendly and treated us well. I danced, the music was good"

Fully Accredited

Following a recent site audit by the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission we have now received confirmation of a successful outcome with the re-accreditation of Villa St Hilarion-Fulham. We are pleased to report that this now means that both the Villa and the House of Saint Hilarion are both Fully accredited.

We would like to thank our wonderful staff for their efforts in assisting us to achieve this great outcome and for all of their continuing work in striving to deliver the highest standard of care to our residents.
