

Dear residents, relatives, and friends,

Welcome to the October 2022 newsletter. October is a very important month in the Society of Saint Hilarion calendar as we celebrate the feast day of Saint Hilarion. Saint Hilarion the Great, as he was sometimes known had many miracles attributed to him. As his fame grew, a small group of disciples wanted to follow him. He began a series of journeys which included Caulonia, in Calabria Italy, where he performed numerous miracles and many of our residents have a connection to, and revere Saint Hilarion.

Below are the photographs of our mini feast celebrating Saint Hilarion, held on 7 October 2022 where our residents enjoyed religious services, music, along with coffee, gelati and traditional biscuits. Thank you to Rita and Rosi and the entire wellbeing team for organising this event, our volunteers Flavia, Pina, and Valentina for freshly baking the biscuits, Peter and Joe for transporting residents to and from Fulham and Ross Perre of Coffee by Ross for donating a pod coffee machine and a box of Society of Saint Hilarion Aged Care blend coffee pods.
